Online Training Courses: General Overview

Each online training course consists of practical sessions with written/audio content, personal assignments and casework, course forums and personal blogs to share and discuss your progress.

In addition Susanna will be transmitting teachings and attunements remotely through energy transfer, personal constellations and teaching dreams.

Students should ensure that they include the following with their application, to make this possible:

- a recent photograph
- location
- full name*
- the name you are generally known by, if different

*Students may login with any Username they wish and use this in blogs and forums. Actual name and personal details can be kept confidential and are for Susanna's use only for the purpose of directing the energy part of the teaching.

The initial courses are:

- Practical Shamanism (8 week course)
- Crystal Healing (8 week course)
- Shamanic Dreaming (8 week course)

For full details, read on.
